Clopton Celebrates Queen's Diamond Jubilee

On Saturday, 2nd June, the village of Clopton celebrated the Queen's Diamond Jubilee with a party in the village hall.

Around one hundred residents, families and friends sat down to a street-style party with live music from Peter Day (keyboards) and Tony Dockerill (saxophone). An excellent spread of sandwiches, homemade cakes and other goodies was provided by volunteers and the hall was transformed with bunting, balloons and union flag tablecloths. Many guests (not just the children) spent the afternoon wearing an artistic face-painting and a fun competition, "Best Homemade Crown" was held with some very creative and original entries.

All the hard work was done by volunteers, who deserve a big "thank you" for a very enjoyable afternoon!

One of our younger residents; the winner of the children's Crown competition, and Clopton's oldest resident, Frank Titchell
